EKOL Information

BEYOĞLU ARCHIVES AND INFORMATION CENTRE

Beyoğlu Municipality's Archives and Information Centre (BEYOĞLU ARCHIVES AND INFORMATION CENTRE) was established in 2009 with the aim of collecting, cataloguing, preserving and making available to the public the cultural heritage of Beyoğlu. The Centre's collections include photographs, maps, documents, books, periodicals, and other materials relating to the history of Beyoğlu, its people, institutions, and cultural life. The Centre also organizes exhibitions, conferences, workshops, and other cultural activities to promote awareness of Beyoğlu's heritage and its significance for the city.

Description

Beyoğlu Archives is a modern, free-access lending library with a focus on Beyoğlu's cultural heritage. The collection includes approx. 10,000 items, including 3,000 photographs, 1,000 maps, 1,000 documents, and 5,000 books and periodicals. The Archives also organizes exhibitions, conferences, workshops, and other cultural activities to promote awareness of Beyoğlu's heritage and its significance for the city. The Archives is open to the public and welcomes visitors, researchers, students, and those interested in the history and culture of Beyoğlu. Visitors can access the collection on-site and borrow materials for up to 2 weeks. The Archives also offers digitized copies of its collection upon request.
